~ October 29 - "STARS COME OUT" in Omaha

Experience Boys Town Nebraska with several different tour options. Learn about Father Flanagan and his vision to provide a home for abused, abandoned, neglected, and disabled children. See the 600-pound ball of stamps made in the early 1950's that was featured in "Ripley's Believe It or Not." Noon lunch at Boys Town. More information about Boys Town is at www.girlsandboystown.org. Then, enjoy the Sixth Annual "Stars Come Out" Benefit Concert at the Strauss Performing Arts Center. Past performers at this event have been the Heartland Hoedowners, Steve Raybine Quartet, Susie Thorne, Joel Edwards, Mark Allen, and Polka Joy. This concert benefits the Intergenerational Orchestra of Omaha to allow all interested musicians to be members.

Departures are available from several other cities. Departures on Bus #2 are available from Lincoln and Wahoo. Lincoln departure is from the city parking lot at North 62nd and Platte Avenue which is diagonal from the Northeast ActivAge Center, 6310 Platte, at 8:30am; return is at about 5:30pm. Cost from Lincoln is $64. Cancellations have a $25 penalty; no shows will not receive any refund.

Brochure available.

~ December 2 - COUNTRY CHRISTMAS AT THE BARN at Wayne

The "For the Master" quartet and their friends will have you stomping your feet at this 2pm performance for only Allied customers. All the performers are "regular" people with "regular" jobs and sharing their talent is a labor of love. Concert is 12 easy steps to the second floor of the barn. Dress casual and warm - the barn is solar heated and will be around 65 degrees. Noon lunch is an "all you can eat" buffet at the Wayne State College Cafeteria. Tour also includes a mystery tour stop. Travelers in 2003 loved the authentic barn and the gospel quartet!

Departures are available from several other cities. Departures on Bus #5 are available from Lincoln, Wahoo, Fremont, North Bend, and Schuyler. Lincoln departure is from the city parking lot at North 62nd and Platte Avenue which is diagonal from the Northeast ActivAge Center, 6310 Platte, at 8:30am; return is at about 7:45pm. Cost from Lincoln is $74. Cancellations have a $25 penalty; no shows will not receive any refund.

Brochure available.
